MON OCT 28

White Nanny Black Child

film screening + panel

7pm– 9.30pm

pay what you can

@ PHOENIX LEICESTER

In partnership with Dare to Diva and Phoenix, we present the BAFTA award winning documentary. It tells the stories of a group of Nigerian children fostered by white families in the 70's. A moving and sometimes unsettling meditation on identity, belonging and the nature of family.

Tickets are Pay What You Can and will include a panel discussion between Black and Care Experienced professionals, including Ade Anifowose, who features in the documentary.

TUES OCT 29

Criminal Exploitation of Britain's Black Children: an academic talk

6–8pm

Free

@ Stephen Lawrence Research Centre, Hugh Aston Building, DMU

Join Ty'rone Haughton, Sabrina Hewitt and Dr Yusef Bakkali in an exchange of perspectives from research, lived experience of the Black Care experience and criminal exploitation of children. In partnership and supported by The Stephen Lawrence Research Centre.
